Career highlights

Sam Magee was a member of the women's eight that won two gold medals this year on the World Cup circuit. The crew did not participate in the first event, but won in both Munich, Germany, and Lucerne, Switzerland. The personnel for those crews remains unchanged for the Olympics. She rowed in the eight at the 2003 World Championships and finished fifth.

Personal

A first-time Olympian, Magee enjoys hiking, reading, polar bears, monkeys, Harry Potter, and her miniature show pony, Frank. In high school, Magee played basketball and soccer. She is an earth systems major at Stanford and is on pace to graduate in 2006.
